From the London Gazette, July 18.

Extract of a letter from John Dalling, Esq; Governor of Jamaica, to the Right Hon. Lord George Germaine, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Kingston, Jamaica, June 2. 1780, and received by the Thynne Packet.

I HAVE the honour to congratulate your Lordship on the reduction of the important fort and post on the river St John, by a detachment of his Majesty's troops under the command of Captain Polson, of the 60th regiment. Suffice it to say, for I shall not take up your Lordship's time with an uninteresting tedious detail of trifling matters, that the fort surrendered on the 29th of April, that there were found in it 1 brass mortar of five and an half inches, 20 pieces of brass ordnance mounted, besides fowls, 10 or 12 iron ditto dismounted, with a proportionable quantity of military stores.

Inclosed are copies of the capitulation, list of prisoners, and of the killed and wounded before the fort.

Extract of a letter from Captain Polson to Governor Dalling, dated St. John's Fort, April 30. 1780.

I HAVE the honour to inform your Excellency, that this castle surrendered to his Majesty's arms yesterday at five o'clock P. M. The terms of capitulation I now enclose, which I hope will meet with your approbation.

I have also the honour of sending your Excellency, by Lieut. Thomas Mounsey, the colours of the fort and of the regiment, as well as returns of the cannon and stores taken in it.

When I came to Cape Gracias a Dios, there was not an Indian to be seen; some villains there had taken pains to persuade them, that the English army had come merely with an intent of enslaving them, and sending them to Jamaica; it was, therefore, some time before any of them ventured to come in. I took the opportunity of sending them small presents by one of their people, who had ventured down to make observations on our motions. He being acquainted with Mr Campbell was undeceived by him, and brought to me, which had the desired effect, as most of the tribes came in very soon after.

Your Excellency's letter of the 17th of March I received the 20th, just as I entered the river St John; I shall ever retain a grateful sense of the sentiments you were therein pleased to express for me, and I am sorry that the many delays I met with at the Cape, and other places between that and the harbour of St John, from the want of craft, and the backwardness of the Indians in coming out, prevented my operations keeping pace with your Excellency's expectations. I however hope you will do me the justice to believe, that no time was lost, which could possibly be saved, situated as I was. It was the 3d of March before any Black River crafts arrived, and they were the only ones then provided; it is true the Indian Governor promised a great many, but when I came to his country there was not one ready, and we got them at last with a great deal of difficulty. The superintendent was entirely deceived by the Indians in the number of crafts and men, and till more so in point of time.

Captain Nelson, then of the Hinchinbrook, came up with thirty-four seamen, one sergeant, and twelve marines; I want words to express the obligations I owe that gentleman; he was the first on every service, whether by day or by night; there was scarce a gun fired but was pointed by him or Lieut. Despard, chief engineer, who has exerted himself on every occasion: I am persuaded if our flot had held out, we should have had the fort a week sooner. As Captain Nelson goes to Jamaica, he can inform you of every delay, and point of service, as well as I could, for he knows my very thoughts.

The bearer, Lieutenant Mounsey, can inform your Excellency of many things that may escape my memory: He is a very good officer, and commanded the party I sent to reconnoitre the look-out, and began the attack of it in concert with Capt. Despard and Capt. Nelson, who with his men volunteered that duty.

ARTICLE I.

Answer of Colonel John Polson, Commander in Chief of his Britannic Majesty's Forces before Fort St. Juan, to the Proposals of Capitulation made by Don Juan de Aylla, Governor thereof for his Catholic Majesty, April 29. 1780.

THE garrison shall be allowed the use of their batteaux to transport themselves where they shall think proper, and the term of four days for the entire evacuation of the fort.

Answer. The garrison of Fort St. Juan shall surrender prisoners of war, and shall be conducted to some port (in my option) of North America, subject to the Crown of Spain, and shall be furnished with vessels and provisions necessary to the voyage, provided they engage their parole of honour not to bear arms against his Britannic Majesty.

Article II. The garrison shall march out with colours flying, each man with a ball in his mouth, lighted matches, drums beating, each soldier shall have twenty rounds, musket and side arms, together with two pieces of cannon, (three-pounders) with twenty rounds to each.

Answer. The British forces must be put in possession of the principal gate of the fort between the hours of four and five in the afternoon, at which centinels shall be kept; to prevent the Indians from committing any act contrary to the rules of war or laws of humanity: And in favour of the gallant defence which the Commandant has made, the garrison shall be allowed to march out, colours flying, drums beating, lighted matches, musket and side arms, with two rounds each man, to the foot of the Glacier, opposite to the south front of the Castle, where they shall pile up their arms and accoutrements, (the officers keeping their swords) afterwards they shall return to the Castle.

Article III. Every officer, and soldier, on evacuating the Castle, shall be allowed to keep their effects, baggage, money, and whatever else may actually belong to them.

Answer. The officers and soldiers shall be allowed to keep their baggage, and whatever money may actually belong to them, but every slave must be detained for the use of his Britannic Majesty.

Article IV. The prisoners made at the advanced post on the island of Benrole shall be restored.

Answer. In case the garrison shall accept the terms of capitulation offered, the prisoners made at the advanced post on the island of Benrole shall be included in it; provided, however, that all slaves shall appertain of right to the King my master.

Article V. The garrison shall be allowed ten days for the evacuation of the fort, during which time they shall not be molested by any person whatsoever.

Answer. The garrison shall not be molested by any person whatsoever, until their arrival at the place appointed.

Article VI. The garrison shall be allowed the use of their own provisions.

Answer. No other answer is necessary to this article, than that already given to the first.

Article VII. The garrison shall be allowed to carry with them all such ornaments and effects as are necessary to their religion and mode of worship.

Answer. Granted in the fullest sense.

Article VIII. The British forces shall treat the garrison with humanity and politeness, duties incumbent on all nations.

Answer. It is the characteristic of Britons to treat their prisoners with humanity and politeness; and I pledge my word to do my utmost to keep the Moriscos within the bounds of moderation.

Article IX. Should any doubts arise in the preceding articles, they shall be explained in favour of the garrison.

Answer. As I do not mean to cavil, an answer to this article would be useless; immediately on being put in possession of the interior of the fort and its dependencies, I will appoint an officer, who shall take charge of the military chest, and likewise name Commissaries to take account of all warlike stores and provisions, artillery, slaves, and in general of every thing which shall be found in the stores or elsewhere, belonging to his Catholic Majesty.

Admiralty Office, July 18. 1780.

Extract of a letter from Admiral Geary, Commander in Chief of a Squadron of his Majesty's ships employed in the westward, to Mr Stephens, dated at sea the 5th instant.

MONDAY the 3d instant, the Monarch being a-head on the look-out, at ten A. M. made the signal for seeing a fleet of twenty-five sail; which judging to be a Squadron of the enemy's ships of war, and that no time might be lost, I immediately ordered a general chase, which was continued all that day. At five P. M. the Monarch made the signal to denote that he passed the sternmost of the enemy's ships, without securing them, as soon afterwards did the Foudroyant, and some others of the headmost ships; and at the same time we could plainly discover, from the Victory's mast-head, that they were nearly up with the rest of the enemy's ships. Soon after seven a thick fog unfortunately came on, and I shortened sail in order to close with the ships nearest me, steering the same course under an easy sail until daylight the morning after. I with pleasure acquaint your Lordships, that all the ships have since rejoined me, except the Monarch and Defence, which I am informed were left in chase of the enemy's ship of war, under whose protection the convoy had sailed.

The fleet which we chased proves to be a convoy from Port-au-Prince, of between 25 and 30 sail, under convoy of the Fier of 50 guns, and a large ship armed en Flute, of which the vessels named in the inclosed list have been captured; and had it not been for the sudden coming on of the fog at the hour I have mentioned, it is my opinion that every ship of them would have been taken.

A List of Prizes taken the 4th of July 1780, by the Squadron under the command of Admiral Geary, bound from Port au Prince to Bourdeaux, and other ports of France.

Brig Le Jean Francois, by the Monarch. Ship Le Comte d'Estaing, by ditto. Ship Le Hazard, by the Proserpine. Polacre Eleonora, by the Ambuscade. Ship Maria Teresa, by the Diana. Ship (name unknown) by the Defence. Phare Le Solitaire, by the Alfred.

The above vessels are chiefly laden with sugar, coffee, and indigo.

From the London Papers, July 18.

Petersburg, June 20. The fleet at Cronstadt, consisting of 15 men of war and four frigates, having received their last instructions, sailed yesterday. As the service for which this fleet is destined, will not permit its return the ensuing winter into the ports of this empire, and of course it will be obliged to winter in foreign ports, the Ministry have sent off consiers to Sweden, Denmark, Holland, England, France, Spain, and Portugal, with dispatches for our Ministers, with instructions for them to request and demand at the courts of their respective residences, that if for the reason above mentioned, one or more ships of the said fleet should be obliged to enter into any of their ports, either to repair, or to pass the winter, &c. they shall be favourably received, and granted all necessary assistance on paying ready money.

Lisbon, June 13. The new Minister from the Court of Petersburg, had on Saturday last his first audience of their Majesties, to whom he presented his credential letters; and was afterwards introduced to the whole royal family. We now hope to hear that our court has accepted the plan of an armed neutrality by sea, which the Empress of Russia hath proposed to the maritime powers of Europe. The English frigate, the Milford, sailed from hence the 14th inst. just after the arrival of two couriers from Madrid, where the ecclesiastic whom this frigate brought hither lately as a courier, still remains. Mr Cumberland, who also came in the same frigate, is set out with his whole family for Madrid. If we may judge from circumstances, there is reason to suppose that he is charged with an important commission. It is reported, that he has brought some papers relative to an insurrection having been discovered in the Spanish West Indies, which papers were found on board a Spanish packet boat taken by the English.

Paris, July 6. A report is spread here, that an English merchant fleet, after having suffered in a violent storm in the latitude of Barbadoes, part of them was met by M. de Ternay's squadron, and several of them taken.

L O N D O N.

A Privy Council will be held to-morrow, at St James's, at the breaking up of the King's Levee, at which Lord Loughborough is expected to be present, to lay before his Majesty in Council the proceedings against the rioters capitally convicted by a Special Commission appointed to try them at St Margaret's-hill.

It was last night reported, and generally credited, that an express had arrived yesterday at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Secretary of State's office, brought by an officer from Sir Henry Clinton, that seven of the American provinces have laid down their arms, and returned to their allegiance.

This day arrived mails from Holland, France, and Flanders, but they bring nothing new.

The Court of France hath at length published an account of the actions of the 17th of April, and 15th and 16th of May, in the West-Indies, wherein they state the loss of men as follows:

11 officers killed, and 28 wounded. Subaltern officers and soldiers, 59 killed, and 196 wounded. Of the crews of the different ships, 88 men killed, and 595 wounded. Total killed, - 158. Wounded, - 820.

The West-India fleet, under the command of Commodore Wallingham, were spoke to within a few days sail of Barbadoes, so that we daily expect to hear of their safe arrival.

The Thynne packet-boat which arrived yesterday from the West Indies, passed the grand fleet on Thursday last, all well.

The Grand fleet, it is now said, will not return to port till after the safe arrival of the Jamaica fleet.

Sir George Collier who commands the Canada, one of Admiral Geary's fleet, and who has taken a Martinico-man and sent her into Portsmouth, in his letter to a friend in London says, "I have sent in a prize, and am in chase of Le Fier, a 50 gun ship, one of the men of war which conveyed the fleet of Martinico-men."

Yesterday morning arrived in town Major-General Prevost, from Georgia, in the Dashwood packet-boat. The General brings dispatches from Lord Cornwallis in South-Carolina, which contain a further confirmation of the success of his Majesty's arms, in the reduction of the rebel naval and military force; Lord George Germaine being out of town, the dispatches were immediately sent to his Majesty at Windsor.

A gentleman is arrived at the East-India house from the Cape of Good Hope; he came by the way of Holland, and brings advice, that the Nassau and Southampton, homeward-bound East-Indiamen, were on the 8th of last March chased into the Cape by six French men of war, and are there blocked up; that a vessel is dispatched to Commodore Vernon, requiring that he will sail with a force sufficient to release them.

The number of prisoners now remaining to be tried being under 20, it is expected that to-morrow the sessions will be over, at least for a time.

The trial of Lord George Gordon, it is now said will certainly be at St Margaret's-hill, notwithstanding the various reports to the contrary; his bill of indictment will be the last that is preferred before the grand jury, and is expected to be presented to-morrow.

Extract of a letter from Kingston, Jamaica, May 27.

It is said the Governor of St. John offered three million of dollars for the ransom of the place.

Yesterday arrived the ship St Helena, Capt. Bodle, in 12 weeks from Liverpool, but last from Antigua, which place she left the 15th instant. On her passage, in latitude 30 N. longitude 39 W. she fell in with a Spanish ship of war of 16 guns and 102 men; after a close engagement of two hours and three quarters, having lost a number of her men, she struck to Capt. Bodle, who has conducted her safe to Port Royal: the Helena had one man killed and two wounded.

Extract of a letter from Jamaica, June 3.

The King's troops under Colonel Polson have ascended the river St Juan, in the province of Nicaragua, as far as the Calle, about fifty miles from the harbour, and forty miles from the lake from whence the river issues, reduced that fortress, important from its situation, on the 29th of April last, and thereby opened a free passage for the grand expedition, commanded by General Dalling, our worthy Governor, to penetrate into the audience of Guatemala, to make themselves masters of New Leon and New Grenada, or indeed any part of New Spain. The General will soon present to the world a new scene; a well appointed British army of near six thousand men, in the bowels of Spanish America, and not three thousand regular troops to oppose them, and those cantoned from the Southern extremity of Chili, to the Northern boundaries of the kingdom of Mexico. An immense trade will soon follow the certain conquests of our forces; the Spaniards will gladly exchange their gold and silver for the light course goods the English from this island can so conveniently supply them with.

Extract of a letter from Charleston, June 6.

We sailed in company from Cork with four more victuallers, laden with provisions for this place, where we all arrived safe. I have no particular news at present, but that General Clinton is embarking 8000 troops on board near one hundred transports, and is to go in person to command them. The ship appointed to receive him is the Romulus, and two frigates are to accompany her. What place this expedition is intended against, is not known, but most people believe its destination is Virginia.

They had taken the Anne and Francis of Whitehaven, Betsey, Miles, of Youghall, and a Scotch brig, with coals, from Liverpool, to Exeter. The Black Prince had fourteen ransomed on board, the Lugger thirteen, and had sent seven sail to France, two of which were laden with guns, from Chester, to Portsmouth. Captain Ramsey was kept on board twelve hours, and saw a ship of 36 guns, which they said was a consort. The whole steered eastward. They told Captain Ramsey they knew there was no ship of force on the coast, and would have the line ships before they departed.

The Jenny and Blacket have suffered a good deal in their masts and rigging, and had three men wounded. The convoy from Hull and Shields are in the Catagat.

Plymouth, 15. Saturday night, arrived the Ambuscade frigate from the fleet, and brought in with her four more of the French West Indians. By her we learn, that the fleet had taken twelve or fourteen sail in all, and that they are all ordered here. These four now make nine sail arrived at Plymouth.

The Nancy and Peggy, Cloud, from Riga, is arrived at Parkgate, after being taken the 8th instant, off the Calf of Man, by the Black Prince privateer, and ransomed for 600l. Captain Cloud says, they burnt a fine brig in his sight, and told him they had burnt a finer ship the day before, and that it was quite a matter of indifference to them; that they would as soon burn or sink, as ransom; that they had twenty-two ransomed on board. After they had done with him, they made sail for Scotland, to meet other ships that were coming. Captain Cloud fears they could not escape.

Extract of letter from London, July 18.

"Fourteen sail of the French St Domingo-men are already arrived, and we are in hourly expectation of having what the sailors call 'a good account' of the remainder. Our political situation seems at this moment the most flourishing of any that we have hitherto experienced; and the rapid advance of our stocks proves indisputably the prosperous state of our affairs."

Extract of another letter from London, July 18.

"Surely the conduct of the citizens of this town is the most absurd, the most unpardonable that ever marked the wavering disposition of any set of men. Scarce a month has passed since the omnipotent mob were wantonly destroying, at their pleasure, the property of every man who had rendered himself obnoxious to them; the citizens of London then saw, with every mark of horror, the danger to which they were exposed, and, very contrary to their former policy, earnestly solicited a military protection; but no sooner are their apprehensions removed, and the tumults suppressed, than they declaim against military government, and every republican newspaper is filled with complaints against Ministry for suffering a military force to be quartered in the city."

"It is asserted that seventy-five of the principal inhabitants of North Carolina signed the conditions offered by the proclamations of General Clinton, and that there is every probability of that province being the first of the remaining Colonies to revolt against its factious oppressors."

"Mr Washington has a second time remonstrated to Congress on the folly of pretending any longer to carry on the war. He positively asserts, that if terms of accommodation are not made to Great Britain, he will resign his command, and avoid the disgrace of laying down the American arms at the feet of the British forces."

"By a letter from Captain Curling, of the Llandowry, dated the 9th of June, in lat. 30. long. 70. from London, we learn, that the homeward-bound Jamaica fleet, consisting of about 130 sail, under convoy of two men of war, were all well, and not one missing."

"They write from Hamburg, that on the 2d instant, a courier from Copenhagen past through that city in haste for the Court of London, a new treaty being on foot between those two powers."

"It is said the following is a list of the new creation of Peers that will shortly take place, and for whom patents are now making out: Lord George Sutton, by the title of Lord Lexington; Lord Algernon Percy, by the title of Lord Warrington, of Warrington, in Devonshire; the Hon. Charles Fitzroy, by the title of Lord Southampton, of the town of Southampton; Lord George Germain, by the title of Lord Drayton, of Drayton, in Northamptonshire; Sir Fletcher Norton, by the title of Lord Beverley, of Beverley, in Yorkshire; William Drake, Esq; by the title of Lord Drake of Atherham, in Buckinghamshire; Sir William Bagot, by the title of Lord Bagot, of Blythfield, in Staffordshire; George Anson, Esq; by the title of Lord Anson of Shaftsbury, in the same county; and Lord Westcote, of the Kingdom of Ireland, a Peer of Great Britain, by the title of Lord Jyttleton of Frankley in Worcestershire."

Theatre-Royal, Saturday, July 22.

The Theatre-Royal will close on Tuesday, August 1. for the benefit of Mr WILKINSON, who begs permission, with great respect, to assure the Nobility, Gentry, and the Public in general, he shall ever esteem himself much honoured by the favours conferred; and regrets the necessity which prevents his continuance as Manager, occasioned by Mr Ro's engagement as partner with Mr Heaphey. Mr W. can only add, he is conscious the Town may have a better Manager next year, but NEVER one more grateful, or anxious to please and deserve their patronage.

Wednesday, 56 French prisoners were shipped at Leith, on board the Edinburgh, Captain William Thomson, a flag of truce, for Calais, being (with some others from the west coast) part of the crew of the Jackall cutter, taken off Norway in May last, by his Majesty's ships Syren, Lizard, and Buly cutter, and brought here in June; since which time the officers have been upon parole at Linlithgow, and the common seamen confined in the Castle of Edinburgh.

Wednesday, John Paterson, Prefes of the Eighty-five Societies of Glasgow, with their Secretary and several other Members, by a warrant from the Secretary of State, were examined by Mr Sinclair, Sheriff of the county of Lanark, regarding their correspondence with Lord George Gordon. It is with pleasure we can say, that the Sheriff acted in the most polite manner: Instead of taking them into custody, as was his orders, he waited upon Mr Paterson at his own house, and acquainted him of the instructions he had received; on this, he delivered the whole of his Lordship's letters to him. We hear they are to be transmitted to London, which, we hope, will not militate any thing against his Lordship, unless it be made to appear, that it is contrary to law to stand forth in support of the Protestant religion.—Glasgow Journal.

Extract of a letter from Dublin, July 15.

"The exportation of woollens from this country is at last begun; for, we have the pleasure to acquaint you, that, since last Monday, there has been entered here, for the island of St Eulatia, in the West Indies, and the port of Ostend, in the Austrian Netherlands, 9000 yards of new and old drapery."

"By the new regulations in his Majesty's revenue in this kingdom, for which heads of a bill have passed our House of Commons, it is said, that, on a moderate computation, the inland Excise will receive an annual increase of near 60,000 l. besides being of great advantage to the fair trader."

The following was filed in the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, on Thursday evening.

Custom-house, Dublin, July 13, 1780.

"The tide-surveyor of Strangford has reported, that, on the 8th instant, in the morning, he saw a long black-fidded cutter set fire to a brig off the coast of Ards in that district, and that she stood to the northward about three in the afternoon."

"John Myles, master of the Betsey of Youghall, has reported, that he was taken five leagues N. E. of the Tufcard, by a cutter called the Black Prince, mounting eighteen nine-pounders, commanded by one Macarty, of Newry, (calls himself Macatter), the men on board Irish and English by much the greater part, had seventeen ransomed on board. The Betsey ransomed for 200 guineas likewise."

"The Collector of Drogheda reports, that a large cutter was seen off the bar of that town. The pilot who saw her says, she is the largest ship of any kind he has ever seen on that coast. The volunteers of the town were gone to Queensborough, to protect the Hawke, which is richly laden with yarn and linen cloth, left the crew of the cutter should come in their boats, and endeavour to carry her off. There was a brig seen yesterday on fire towards the Isle of Man, supposed to have been burned by the crew of said cutter, for not paying her ransom."

"And William Johnston, Esq; surveyor of Skerries, reports, that, in the evening tide of the 11th, came into the harbour there, Captain Armstrong, of the Lark of Workington, and Captain Beaver of Whitehaven, being afraid to proceed to sea for fear of being captured. The former reports, that he spoke off Lambay with a Scotch brig, laden with coals, from Ballycastle to Dublin, the master of which informed him, that he was captured off the Copland Isles, on Saturday last, about ten o'clock at night; by the Black Prince, and ransomed for 400 l.; that he had taken eleven prizes before, two of which he sunk, and burned one; that he saw one of their small boats on board the privateer; and he thought he saw the same privateer off the Isle of Man on Saturday last."

"The board think it necessary to communicate this intelligence, for the information of the merchants and traders. WM. MOLESWORTH.

General Post-Office, Dublin, 13th July, 1780.

"The Captain of the packet boat who arrived this evening mentions, that he saw a privateer this morning at six o'clock, close in with Bray Head."
